Another Woman Murdered. In the discovery of the body of a woman huddled underneath the rear stoop of a big tenement at 240 west Thirty-second street, New York, yester-day, the police believe they had evi-dence of another murder. The victim, whose name was unknown, was about 30 years old and evidently in poor cir-cumstances. The clothing was disar-ranged, her face bruised and there were marks of violence about the throat which aroused the suspicions of the police. When the body was lifted the head moved so easily as to indicate that the woman's neck had been broken. The front of her waist was stained with blood. That section of the city where the body was found is known as "Hell's Kitchen," and is the stamping ground of some tough characters. Its condition now is worse than usual. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has a tem porary trestle running through one side of the street, and in the darkness underneath rough gangs congregated.

Incredible Brutality

Incredible Brutality
It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering
son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too.

A Laxative Cough Syrup.

A Laxative Cough Syrup.

"A cold or cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It meets and corrects the above conditions, by atting as a pleasant cathartic on the bowels—expels all colds from the system and cures all coughs, croup whooping coughs, La Grippe, bronchitis, etc. Sold by W.
